

INTERCULTURAL

STUDIES

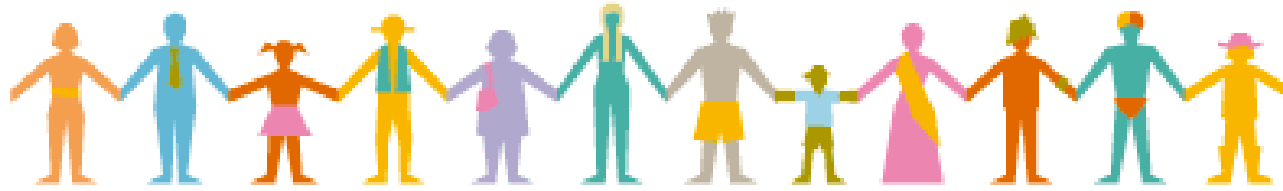

at Wagaman

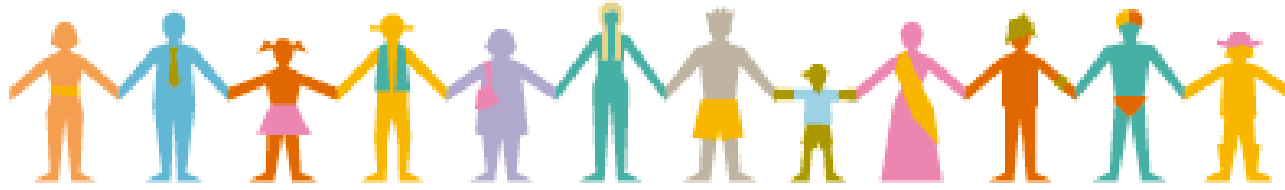

Making connections with diverse communities enriches us as citizens

Learning another language builds our capacity to strengthen the knowledge and usage of our first language.

Schools need to assist young people to:

- be caring and responsible global citizens
 - be comfortable with diversity and contribute to building an harmonious and prosperous Australia

At Wagaman children have the opportunity to learn

GREEK

MANDARIN

INDONESIAN

